[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO FEBRUARY 1.

News by way of London.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The reassembling of the Conference is again postponed in consequence of the illness of Granville. Postal communication between London and Paris is re-opened. The Prussians are driving cattle to Paris to feed the inhabitants.

Bismarck has notified the British Foreign Office that the Dieppe line is alone at present available for the transportation of provisions to Paris, but until sufficient supplies are received the Germans will share their stores with the citizens. The execution of the terms of the Convention between Favre and Bismarck proceeded yesterday without interruption.

The French forces are again advancing from south of the Loire. The Prussians destroyed the bridge at Blois which stopped their advance. The French subsequently retreated southward.

General Montenffel incloses the army of Bourbaki on the Swiss frontier. He overtook the retreating French at West Pontartier, captured Chaperi with 3000 prisoners and six pieces of artillery.

Frederick Charles and Chanzy.

LE MANS, Jan. 31.—The World's special says Prince Frederick Charles has communicated the stipulations of the armistice to Chanzy, and asked whether he regards them as binding on him.

Emperor William and the Pope.

ROME, Jan. 30.—Herr Von Arnem, German Ambassador to Rome, presented the Pope an autograph letter from the Emperor William, thanking His Holiness for peace counsels, and expresses conciliatory views, but no reference to the temporal power.

Italian Affairs.

FLORENCE, Jan. 31.—In the debate in Parliament on the Papal guarantees, an explanation was made by the Government that the responsibilities it proposes to assume toward the Pope were the same as those adopted by the advice of Cavour, with relation to the liberties of the Church, and that the practical effect of this policy would be to exempt the Pope from the subjection to any temporal power.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The Soldiers' Pension bill was passed in the House to-day.

The Speaker presented a message from the Senate requesting a Committee of Conference on the question at issue between the two Houses as to the right of the Senate to originate the bill to repeal the income tax.

Hooper moved to concur in the request of the Senate.

Maynard desired action postponed until to-morrow. He believed this was not a question for conference, but a matter under the Constitution for the exclusive judgment of the House.

In answer to an inquiry from Randall, the Speaker said a conference would have no power to consider the bill itself; only the question of the right of the Senate to originate such a bill.

The conference was agreed to. Hooper, Allison and Voorhees were appointed on the part of the House.

The Internal Revenue Bureau.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—A Washington special says there have been signs for some days past proving discontent in official circles of the House with Pleasanton, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and a change in that department is predicted by those who are best informed. His advocacy of the repeal of the revenue tax, in opposition to the policy of the head of the Treasury, is reported as offensive, and as an attempt to strengthen himself in public favor at the expense of the Administration. The extraordinary statements made of the cost of collecting the tax, and his assumed familiarity with the business when his seat is hardly warm under him, are severely criticised.

It has been asserted that Pleasanton was made Commissioner through the influence of Gen. Ingall and others interested in the New York Central Railroad tax case; and it was rumored to-day that he would resign after February 10th, the time set for determining that case. The amount of tax involved is one million dollars. Whether these rumors have any other origin than that of general dissatisfaction it is impossible to tell, but the appointment of Pleasanton is objectionable to a large number. Having spent five years in the regular army his fitness for such an important civil office is called into question. He has brought into his office the rulings and manners of a martinet, and is regarded by his subordinates as harsh and unreasonable. His recent order excluding representatives of the press and his bulletin of news is a fair specimen of his work. It is also rumored that Deputy Commissioner Williams, of Indiana, will soon resign at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Steamers for Germany.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The conclusion of armistice of Paris enables German steamers to resume trips via English ports.

Mark Twain.

WHAT HE SAYS ABOUT CHAMBERMAIDS.

Against all chambermaids of whatsoever age or nationality, I launch the curse of bachelordom:

Because:

They always put the pillows on the opposite end of the bed from a gas burner, so that while you read and smoke before sleeping as is the ancient and honorable custom among bachelors, you have to hold your book aloft, in an uncomfortable position, to keep the light from dazzling your eyes. If they can't get the light in an inconvenient position any other way, they will move the bed. If you pull the trunk out six inches from the wall, so that the lid will stay up when you open it, they always shove that trunk back again. They do it on purpose.

They always put your boots into inaccessible places. They chiefly enjoy depositing them as far under the bed as they will permit. It is because this compels you to go down in an undignified attitude, and make wild sweeps for them in the dark with the boot-jack, and swear. They always put the match-box in some other place. They hunt up a new place for it every day, and put up a new bottle or other perishable glass thing, and groping about in the dark you get yourself into trouble. They are forever moving the furniture. When you come in, in the night, you can calculate on finding the bureau where the wardrobe was in the morning. And when you come in at midnight, or thereabouts, you will fall over the rocking-chair, and you will proceed toward the window and sit down in a slop-tub. This will, disgust you. They like that.

No matter where you put anything they won't let it stay there. They will take it and move it the first chance they get. They always save up the old printed rubbish you throw on the floor and stack them carefully on the table, and then start a fire with your valuable manuscripts. They keep always coming to make your bed before you are up, thus destroying your rest and inflicting agony upon you, but after you get up they don't come any more till the next day.

The Sherburne County (Minn.) Weekly has been reduced to a small five-column paper. Its editor says that, before this reduction, it was "entirely too large for one of its age," and that, "unless we get a new subscriber or a legal advertisement on or before the 1st day of January, A. D. 1872, we shall condense it another column," and so on for the next three successive years.

Some one evidently prejudiced, asserts that George H. Baker and Charles G. Leland are the only literary Philadelphians who have ever been heard of.

The country papers are killing Cornelius Vanderbilt in paragraphs—which have no effect on his health however, as he has never been better than now.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Bourbaki's Army.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Bourbaki's army has not entered Switzerland. The French commandant had asked the Swiss authorities to allow the transportation of their sick through Switzerland. The request was granted.

The bombardment of Belfort continues. The Twenty-fourth French corps escaped southward; the remainder of Bourbaki's army is cut off, being driven upon the Swiss frontier.

A dispatch from Gambetta yesterday, replying to a dispatch from Favre of the 28th, says the country is feverishly anxious and cannot rest contented; that the Government of Bourdeaux has ordered the immediate execution of an armistice, but cannot order elections without further explanations; and without knowing the fate of the Paris municipality. Bordeaux has protested against any dishonorable peace, and implored the Government to remain at its post.

Miscellaneous News from France.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—Favre represents Paris as already suffering greatly. Emperor William has ordered 3,000,000 rations to be sent from the German army.

It is said that Sring was heard at Belleville and Villette yesterday. Disturbances are feared.

Gambetta telegraphs to the Prefects that he will announce his resolve after communication with Paris. He tells them to remain firm.

It is reported that military operations in Eastern France will cease Feb. 1st.

The Orleans princes have resolved to accept the candidature for the National Assembly, believing that if they are chosen their return to France will no longer be prohibited.

The Armistice.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 31.—The armistice is carried out in the west and north without difficulty.

Dispatch from Berlin.

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—Orders are given for discontinuing the dispatch of troops to France.

The telegraphic report of the Emperor's return to Berlin is unfounded. He will not arrive before a definite treaty of peace is arranged.

The National Assembly.

BORDEAUX, Jan. 31.—It is believed that the first act of the Assembly at Bordeaux will be the nomination of President of the Council and Ministers forming the Government. Favre, Gambetta, Thiers, Picish and Grevy are probable candidates for the Presidency. The first three have the greatest chances.

Bonapartist Intrigues.

The following is the World's cable dispatch:

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Court circles here are confident of the restoration of the Empire, with Eugenie as Regent. The Emperor's confidential aid arrived at Chiselhurst to-day.

General Telegrams.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The dykes of Smyrna are destroyed by a torrent. A large part of the city is inundated. The number of victims is not yet known.

PESTH, Jan. 31.—The Austrian delegation advise increase of armaments, but repudiate the policy of revenge. Austria's policy is peaceful but prudent. Hostile contingencies are possible, and foreign powers must learn that Austria is prepared for defense.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—In the House Sargent introduced a bill for the relief of pre emption settlers in California.

After an excited discussion the bill abolishing the test oath for persons in the South not disqualified by the Fourteenth Amendment passed without amendment by yeas 118, nays 89. It now goes to the President for his approval.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—A Washington special says the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations will devote considerable time to the Alabama Claims. Details will probably cover the whole question of damages done by rebel cruisers fitted out in British ports, and various schemes will be proposed for their settlement. The Committee are unwilling to take any action with regard to damages done by any one of the pirates which would by implication weaken the claims for damages done by others. The Committee will probably not report on the matter this session.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Recent exposures of the character of Lower California in the vicinity of Magdalena Bay, and the objects of the Company in inducing immigration there, have so effectually killed the enterprise that it is apparently abandoned. The company to day filed a protest with the Mexican consul, setting forth that in consequence of the Consul having refused to clear vessels for Magdalena Bay, and notifying the people that the shipment of goods there would render the goods liable to seizure, as there was no custom house there and no port of entry there recognized by law, the company had been greatly damaged, vessel owners refusing to charter their vessels, and immigrants being deterred from going there, and the company would claim damages from the Mexican government. The Consul says he refuses clearances for Magdalena Bay simply because he had no power to clear vessels except to ports of entry, and only did his duty by notifying shippers not to render themselves liable to loss by shipping contrary to law. He was and is ready to clear for La Paz and any other legal port.

The America, to-day, carried $397,000 in treasure, and merchandise valued at $113,000, including 1,100 barrels flour for China and Japan.

A committee consisting of Drs. Beverly, Cole, Henry, Gibbons, Jr., and Grover, appointed by the San Francisco Medical Society, at the request of many parents and tax-payers, visited the principal public schools to-day. Their report is not yet prepared, but they express themselves as satisfied that the course of study is too severe and trying, and the amount of exercise too little for the health of the pupils. The report is likely to cause a great modification in course of studies and discipline in the schools, it being the opinion among parents that the health of children is materially affected at present.

Dispatch from Marysville.

MARYSVILLE, Feb. 1.—A new ticket tariff, making slight reductions from Marysville to points east of the junction, goes into effect on the Central Pacific Railroad to-morrow.

NEVADA.

Fire at Virginia City.

VIRGINIA, Feb. 1.—At one o'clock this morning a fire broke out near the Merchant's Exchange, on C street, in a building kept by Mrs. Sherman as a lodging house, which proved to be one of the most destructive fires that has visited our city for years. The fire crossed D street and swept two-thirds of the east side of the street from Union to Sutton Avenue. At one time, McKay's stable, on the corner of D and Union streets, was on fire, and the work of tearing down the building was commenced in order to save Piper's Opera House, but by the almost superhuman exertions of the firemen the building was saved. Along D street, east and west side, the destruction was most sweeping. Loss of amount of insurance not ascertained. Pat. Lyons and a bootblack, known as "Snorkey," were burned to death in Mrs. Sherman's house. They were sleeping there and were not awakened till escape was impossible.

Further Account of the Fire.

VIRGINIA, Feb. 1.—The buildings destroyed this morning by fire comprise three on C street, six on the east side of D street, fifteen on the east and four on the west side of E street, besides several other buildings between those points. One of the bodies taken from the ruins of a lodging house was supposed at first sight to be the bootblack "Snorkey," but he has since turned up alive. The body has not been identified. Several parties were arrested for stealing at the fire.

At the U. S. branch mint the deposits for the week ending Jan. 28th aggregate 25,909 ounces, valued at $53,066 20.

The Nevada Stage Robbers.

RENO, Feb. 1.—The party of officers who were hunting Roberts, the road agent, returned this afternoon, having found their man in bed at his father's house. None of the missing coin has been found. The examination was postponed till Monday. The prisoner was taken to Washoe for incarceration. He denies all knowledge of the robbery and of Beaver. The latter is in a critical condition and made a deposition before Judge Kelly last night, stating that he and Roberts put up the job to rob the Susanville stage at 1 o'clock yesterday, and that no other persons were aware of their intention.

ARIZONA.

Indian Depredations.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 1.—From the Tucson Arizonian we get the following: Indian hostilities are occurring all over Arizona. Within ten days the Apaches have made several raids on the Gila and Pima reservations, places heretofore regarded as safe. A mass meeting is called for this evening to consider measures for public safety. Troops are being ordered from the posts when there is need of additional forces, and the farmers on the Santa Cruz and about Camp Crittenden will be obliged to wholly abandon their homes, unless better protection is afforded. Much alarm is felt on the part of mail contractors, and citizens generally regard the situation as dreary.

Fight Among Indians.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—Information is received from the Colorado, of a fight between the [illegible] and Chimehuevi Indians, a few days since, in the neighborhood of Williams' Fort. The fight lasted all day when the Mojaves were routed, losing 36 warriors, and the Chimehuevies their head Chief.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., Jan. 14, 1871.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The Senate bill to pay the Oregon volunteers commanded by Capts. Jesse Walker and Nathan Olney in 1854, passed the Senate to-day. It only awaits the signature of the President to become a law.

THE SURVEY OF THE PUBLIC LANDS IN OREGON.

The surveys of the public lands in Oregon are much needed. It would take at least $50,000 to survey the townships now settled west of the Cascade mountains. Senator Corbett is exerting himself to get them surveyed. The following correspondence explains itself:

WASHINGTON, Jan. [illegible]

Hon. Joseph S. Wilson, Commissioner General Land Office:—DEAR SIR: [illegible] form you that there are large tracts of heavily timbered country [illegible] of mountains unsurveyed. It has therefore been entirely impracticable to survey these lands for the market. I am informed by a practical surveyor that he would not take the contracts at $4 per mile for extension. I am [illegible] that surveyors will [illegible] communicate at $4 and see if they can get some of these surveyors. It is [illegible] many [illegible] in this section that it [illegible] I suppose [illegible] surveys [illegible] that $4 [illegible] surveys [illegible] dition to [illegible] made [illegible] this connection. Very respectfully, H. W. CORBETT.

[illegible] OF THE INTERIOR, General Land Office, January [illegible]

H. W. CORBETT, U. S. Senate: [illegible] your request of the 9th inst. that I recommend an additional appropriation of $1,000 to $20,000 be augmented [illegible] the survey of the public lands in Oregon, I have to say that I have the honor to state that [illegible] submitted an estimate of $15,000 for surveys exceeding $[illegible] the present fiscal year, [illegible] townships already under contract, and which will be completed during the present fiscal year. I have also submitted an estimate of $[illegible] for the same purpose for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1872, which estimate is now before Congress for their action in the matter.

I have the honor to be, Very respectfully, your obedient servant, [illegible] WILSON, Commissioner.

New York Commercial Letter.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE—FREIGHTS—RATES—SHIPMENTS OTHERLAND, [illegible]

[By telegraph to the San Francisco Bulletin.]

NEW YORK, January 18th.

The total shipments and offerings of kerosene thus far, including that noted in last dispatch, foot up 45,000 cases, all of which will be cleared within sixty days. In addition to this, the shippers of Devoe's Oil will ship in regular installments throughout the year about 125,000 cases, while parties entered in last dispatch will probably forward about 50,000 cases in regular lots. There will also be several outside shipments in addition to the regular shipments from Boston and this port. The indications are that the movement for the current year will be larger than in any previous one, and fully 100 per cent. larger than last year. This quantity, as well as that on the way, will no doubt provide your consumers with as cheap a light as can be had in any other city in the world.

The offerings of other merchandise are light, and the market is unusually quiet, without any prospect of an immediate improvement.

Rates of freight are easier, owing to the absence of offerings. I quote as before, though some articles have been shipped lower. The vessels on berth fill slowly, and all of them have been detained, owing to the quiet state of the market.

The bark Sierra Nevada will finish during the current week, and the Blue Jacket by the 23d instant. The Herman will hold on till the end of the month. The vessels to follow are not doing much beyond stowing their engagements of oil. As noted above, the principal movement has been paralyzed, the offerings being otherwise very moderate, with a noticeable falling off in some manufactured articles, owing to the scarcity of water. I note small shipments of Grant's and Emery's candles; also several round lots of oysters.

The agent of the Southern Pacific Railroad is still out of the market, but I understand it is only temporary, or until rates for this class of freight are easier.

Tonnage, though in better supply, particularly for small vessels, is not in very great demand for this trade, owing to the promising condition of the freight market; still owners are not disposed to recede from their views of last month, and demand full rates. I note the engagement of the ship Ellen Austin and the bark Una, both for Comstock's line, the latter with 100 tons rails and 500 cases oil.

Steamer freights continue active, notwithstanding the quiet aspect of affairs via Cape Horn and overland, and the steamer hence on the 20th will have equally as large a freight as the last one. As regards the future of this line, rumors are again being circulated; among others are that they will withdraw from the Isthmus trade in March, after having contracted with the Pacific Railroads for the transportation of their China freights. This, like many other rumors, cannot be confirmed, and I doubt very much whether this route will ever be abandoned, for it is rapidly becoming a favorite route, and the only change probable is the substitution of a class of steamers more suitable for carrying freight, and at cheaper rates.

Overland freights are dull, and the shipments during the past five days are very moderate, including 135 cases tobacco, 450 boxes clocks, 890 packages miscellaneous goods.

General Freight Agent Brownson, of the Union Pacific railroad, is in town, and it is rumored that there is to be a new deal in rates and classifications, and that they will be more acceptable to the shippers than heretofore. I also learn that the advice heretofore suggested in this correspondence is to be tried, and that the freight agent in this city will hereafter have full power to make special contracts for any considerable amount of freight, without telegraphing to Omaha for instructions, thereby, in most cases out of ten, losing the freight. Other improvements will also be made, and efforts made to regain the popularity which the road has lost by previous mismanagement.

At Boston the California freight market is more quiet than here, and many goods are sent here for shipment, owing to the delay in getting vessels off. The Two Brothers will finish in a few days, but the road to succeed her has not yet been named.

General trade shows very little improvement [illegible] but the [illegible] weather causes a very [illegible] feeling.

[illegible] and firm, with [illegible] stronger, [illegible] brights with a trifle [illegible] are in turn [illegible] parties [illegible] at $1 [illegible] 70. [illegible] 23@30. [illegible] 28,000 [illegible] and lambs, [illegible] pounds [illegible] 3 [illegible] 22 [illegible] 25 cents [illegible] but prices are [illegible] stock [illegible] crop of [illegible] for California [illegible] are sure.

Government Expenditures in Oregon.

At last the "organ" does concede that the the General Government expends more money in Oregon than it receives back in taxes. Here are its figures:

EXPENDITURES.

For carrying the mails	$ 98,000
War Department	100,666
Public Buildings	83,000
Indian Department	100,000
Land Surveys	15,000
Total	$482,666

RECEIPTS

Duties on Imports collected in Oregon	$121,029
Internal Revenue	333,157
Total	$454,087
Excess of Expenditures	$ 8,579

Of course the expenditures which the Oregonian are much too small In a former article we presented figures showing nearly what the actual expenditures are. But the World concedes enough to overturn all the assertions it has for years been industriously making, to the effect that our State was being oppressed and impoverished by Federal taxation. We have now its own figures for what the Government does expend more than it takes from us by taxation. This comes down materially from its former assertions. It was, however, summed up only about one-third of the regular expenses of the General Government in Oregon; but was enough to stop it from clamoring about the Federal taxes. It proves that its Democratic readers that we have no just cause to complain of the action of the Government, because the Government is doing back all it takes away from them, and a little too. That point is now settled.

We ask the donor a second time that the "organ" in making up its account will try to include in the items of Federal taxation in this State, the sum of $61,408, specified as "for lands sold by the Government" This is, indeed, a new idea of taxation The Government owns the land, which it sells at so much per acre to Oregonians, thus making the State pay large sums annually from the sales We ask you to waste time and space in attempting to enlighten absolute dunces or if shocking to tell what is the matter we can attempt to carry proposal though Jimmy Irish it is. The only thing we deem it worth while to note at this time is the admission of the "organ" that the Government paid out last year in Oregon the sum of $402,[illegible], while it got through the customs and [illegible] laws the only two species of taxation known to the General Government, viz., $61,087, an amount less by $8,[illegible] than the expenditures of the General Government in the State Perhaps the organ didn't know what it was admitting when it published its figures, but there the admission is, and we may add as our own opinion, and we will soon present figures to show it, that the Government is not, by the great reduction in internal taxes, collecting only about one-third as much as it is expending from

Tammany's Game

The St. Louis Tribune says that the principal [illegible] the organ of "The West the [illegible] who, feebly resists the Democratic effort to nominate Hoffman for the Presidency next year, by denouncing the [illegible] and [illegible] that the Democratic party must cling to the greenback and [illegible] paper policy. This remonstrance is futile. Tammany Hall has taken charge of the Democratic party, and proposes to run the [illegible] ships. That this is a foregone conclusion in New York city there is no doubt and Belmont, Pendleton, and Hancock and Governor Fenton Adams may as well make the best [illegible] they can with the coming man of Tammany. Sheriff O'Brien, of New York city in a recent interview, not only stated the purpose of Tammany to nominate Hoffman, but [illegible] some of the means by which [illegible] to him will be [illegible] come. He says

"[illegible] is powerful and rich The South is poor, and the delegation from the Southern States will go solid for Hoffman if Tammany wants it. There are agents from the South who are here and there now, being fixed up so as [illegible] man's subscription is the next National Convention a certainty "You know how it is yourself" with the South they are poor and Tammany rich, that will settle a peculiar smile, and Hoffman will certainly be the next candidate for President."

It was stated in Mr Randall's Philadelphia, in Ca[illegible], the other day that the next Democratic Presidential convention would be held in St Louis, and to this convention the Chicago Tribune affirms Tammany is all ready reading financial arrangements to bring an overwhelming army of impecunious rebels to vote for Hoffman. If Tammany wills it, his nomination is certain, notwithstanding his obnoxious views on finance and currency

Time that saved the Union Pacific Railroad.

It is now stated at the East with some appearance of [illegible] that Vanderbilt has secured a controlling interest in the Union Pacific Railroad. Some time ago it was announced that he had plans for railroad consolidation so as to make himself master of a continuous line entirely across the Continent. [illegible] first [illegible] led to Chicago; thence he advanced to Omaha; and now it is said that the [illegible] of Oliver Ames and the discussion at Washington on the unpaid interest on the Union Pacific Company's bonds have caused such a depression of the stock that Vanderbilt is likely to succeed, if he has not actually succeeded already, in obtaining control of a majority of it, which would bring his "star of empire" [illegible] far west as Ogden. The San Francisco Call gives credit to this statement, and thinks that if Vanderbilt cannot control the Central Pacific he will continue his road through from Salt Lake to San Francisco, with a branch from Salt Lake to the Columbia river. These rumors, if there is any real foundation for them, are of the highest interest and importance to the Pacific coast. True, we of the northwest look to the Northern Pacific as the road which will most directly and powerfully affect the fortunes of our section; but the Vanderbilt programme is of interest to us nevertheless.

Gen. F. P. Blair recently wrote a letter from Missouri to Washington, supporting the policy of annexing San Domingo, and sharply criticising his Democratic associates for abandoning the land-marks on the question of expansion and "manifest destiny," especially to the southward.

The Census—Cities of over 20,000 Population.

The following table, compiled from the last census, shows that there are in the United States sixty-seven cities with a population of over 20,000 inhabitants. Washington, which in 1860 stood number fourteen on the list, now stands number twelve—Louisville, Albany and Newark, having been outnumbered, while San Francisco has outstripped the four and taken its position tenth on the list. St. Louis and Chicago have passed Baltimore, Boston, New Orleans and Cincinnati, and stand fourth and fifth on the list; while Baltimore, which stood fourth in 1860, now stands sixth. In the matter of percentage of gain Kansas City, Missouri, is far in the lead; while New Bedford, in the North, and Savannah, in the South, are the only cities which show an actual decrease.

In 1860 the aggregate population of the ten leading cities was 2,708,987. In 1870 the same cities show a population of 3,694,666, a gain of 940,679, or an average of 24.7 per cent.; and a corresponding increase, which seems more than probable, for the next decade, would give in those cities a population of nearly five millions.

The table will be found very interesting to those who desire to analyze it, and convenient to all for reference:

The Railroad Subsidy.

About $75,000 has been subscribed toward the week side subsidy. Only a few days more remain in which to make up the sum. On the 9th inst or one week from to-day Thursday the sixty days within which acceptance must be signified will expire. The committee now have the matter in hand, and propose to push it through at once. They will be engaged in it during the remainder of the present week and have made arrangements for a meeting to take place next Monday evening, at which it is expected that all who feel an interest in the railroad and the future of Portland will attend. It is the expectation to make up at that meeting any sum that may be lacking, but those who intend to subscribe need not wait for that occasion, but should put down at once the sums which they expect to donate It is time now for business and no time for a shilly-shally policy That has been continued quite long enough.

D F Brown Esq., of Salem, and other first class Democrats holding State warrants on the Penitentiary fund, have no admiration for the scaling Commission, and want the whole amount of cash which their warrants call for. Therefore they ask for a mandamus to compel the payment of warrants in full that have been re-audited and cut down by the Commission. The Statesman says that Judge Boise will hear the case next week. The "bloated bondholders" are confident that the Commission will be declared an unconstitutional body, and that all its works will be swept away. It is pleasing to observe that it is our Democratic brethren who are going in to abolish the works of the recent Democratic Legislature. A Democratic broker and speculator, though he votes for "equitable adjustment," don't like the practical workings of the doctrine better than "any other man"

Gov. Geary, of Pennsylvania, a few days ago called, in company with the leading officers of the Union League, on President Grant, to discuss plans for the future efficiency of the League, and for the welfare and success of the Republican party. Democrats were chagrined that Gov. Geary made one of this party, since they were so certain from some of the doctrines contained in his recent message that he was going to quit the Republican organization.

On the 17th January, Gen. Logan was elected U. S. Senator by the Illinois Legislature for the term of six years from the 4th of March next. The Democrats voted for T. J. Turner. In the Senate the vote stood, Logan, 32, Turner 18; in the House, Logan 101; Turner, 70. Total number of votes for Logan, 133; for Turner, 88.

Among the reports afloat concerning the new diggings in Eastern Montana are these: Three men sluiced out nine dollars from the surface dirt in a little over two hours, when the approach of a snow storm caused them to quit work and return to Emigrant gulch; over one dollar, in middling coarse gold, was often obtained on the bed-rock; the diggings, for the most part, are very shallow and easily worked, and cannot fail to yield from five to fifty dollars a day to the hand; there will be an abundance of water for working all summer; the surrounding country is well timbered and a fine grazing region; the diggings are extensive enough for ten thousand claims.

From the Walla Walla Union: The small pox is no joke here. It is not worth while to call it the "prevailing disease," or any other pet name; for the fact is that it is now pretty generally spread through the settlement on the Walla Walla river near its mouth, and on the lower part of the Touchet. Quite a number are now sick with it, but it is said to be of rather a mild type. It is said by some that it was brought to the settlements below here by Indians who came from Umatilla.

Hon. Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts, is re elected U. S. Senator. The Republican vote for him in caucus was nearly unanimous.

OREGON.

Two cargoes of wheat have been taken up the river to the Salem mills. An unusual direction to ship wheat.

The steamer Albany came down the river on Tuesday with sixty tons of flour from Springfield, and forty tons of bacon from Eugene City.

The estate of Judge Olney at Astoria has been appraised at $59,000. The indebtedness of the estate, so far as known, is $18,000. The balance is willed to the city of Astoria by Judge Olney.

The Roseburg Ensign says: "Jack" Burnett, of Jackson county, has sounded the tocsin, ground his tomahawk and had his boot tapped for war. He has promised Jim Fay and the editor of the Sentinel personal vengeance, or "boot leather" in broken doses. "Jack" was in the "chicken pie." No danger. "Jack" was in the Oregon Legislature, and there learned to like "salt" better than battery.

According to the statement of a correspondent of the Statesman, who writes from Sublimity, the worst abused man in those regions is a hunter who lives near the foot of the mountains and hunts for a living. He keeps a pack of twenty-seven hounds and another of seventeen children, both of which depend upon the chase for food. When venison abounds they are happy and full, and the happiness of the family is endangered by the fact that whenever those hounds hear the sound of the locomotive it throws them off the track and the deer most escapes capture, and the whole family go hungry in consequence. That man says the hunting business is ruined, and makes bitter complaint. Civilization is at discount in that family, and either Ben Holladay must quit that "cussed" screaming of his locomotives, just at the ripe hour for hunting every morning, or that pack of twenty-seven hounds will likely be devoured by that pack of seventeen children.

From the Statesman: Frank Cooper's down from his coal bank at the head of Butte creek, and we learn from him that he is now running into a ledge of excellent coal ten feet thick, which improves as he goes in. Mr. Burrows has tried 1,500 pounds of this coal, and certifies that it produces gas well, but doesn't yield coke as well as could be desired. Cooper says this coal bed is 280 feet above the creek, and slopes upward in the hill, which makes drainage without cost. He has been making lime and cement in a lime quarry near by, as a source of revenue, and with the proceeds has been prospecting the coal beds near by. There is also iron of the best quality near by, the ore being very rich and in immense supply. These three natural deposits, coal, lime and iron, are all necessary in the reduction of the latter, and we shall look at no distant time for extensive works to be erected in that vicinity, and for a railroad to connect it with the O. & C. R. R., only fourteen miles distant. Cooper deserves great credit for his perseverance in holding on to this property and developing it, for he is thereby insuring an earlier opening up and working of these interests, which must in the future prove to be of immense importance. No doubt he will in time be abundantly rewarded.

THE TERRITORIES.

Walla Walla papers want regulations made and enforced to keep Indians out of town.

The total amount of taxable property in Montana is reported by the Assessors at $8,762,735.

The Walla Walla Union calls Gov. Salomon "the best immigration society we have had yet."

It takes 122 hours, or a little over five days, to travel from Walla Walla to Kelton on the Pacific railroad.

A shooting match for a $500 set of diamond jewelry was arranged to come off between two [illegible] of Miner[illegible], a few days ago.

The Montana Territorial Treasurer reports the receipts for the past year at $34,323 63; disbursements, $30,371 13—leaving in the treasury a balance of $3,952 50.

More land has been entered at the Helena (Montana) land office since November than ever before. The near approach of the railroad makes our settlers impatient to have their titles perfected.

The Sound papers mention the fact that U. S. Marshal Kenner has paid off all the jurymen and other expenses incidental to running the courts in that part of the Territory, and that to do so, he advanced $6,000 out of his own private funds.

A disastrous fire lately visited Red Mountain City, Deer Lodge county, Montana. Masonic Hall was totally destroyed, and Mr. R. D. Legat, merchant, lost $3,000 in goods and property. The Masons have begun the construction of a new hall.

The proprietors of the North Pacific Coal Mine, between Helena and Blackfoot, have run in their main tunnel over two hundred feet, and are now taking out a very superior quality of coal. They have found immense deposits of French clay underlying the coal strata, the same, it is claimed, that is used in the manufacture of queensware.

A Deep Creek, Meagher county, Montana, farmer named Sheasley lost four mules and two horses, with their harness and a good freight wagon—all worth $1,500—by the ice breaking beneath them as he was trying to drive the team across the Missouri river at Canyon Ferry. His own escape was miraculous; jumping from the wagon into the freezing torrent, he saved himself by grasping at supports one cake of ice after an other till he reached the shore.

THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2 1871

CITY.

A CASE OF DAUGHING.—Yesterday evening a young man named Chas B Lewis who had come to the city only two or three days since was found by a policeman on Front street, very sick and evidently drugged The officer took him to the police headquarters and a physician was summoned. Meantime the young man commenced having severe spasms, and was evidently in a very bad way The physician arriving, pronounced him poisoned probably with aconine, and gave him an antidote. His spasms continued for some time, his contortions being fearful, but happily the antidote produced vomiting and he gradually recovered, so as to be able to talk connectedly and to explain what had happened He said he had been invited to take a drink in a saloon on Morrison street, next door to the Mammoth saloon, that he asked for and got a glass of brandy and very soon desired to retire to a water closet the young man who had asked him to drink directed him up stairs and went with him, arriving in the upper room they found two others playing cards a different game was proposed, and he was asked to join the game was faro, and after seeing one of the men (a capper, no doubt) win considerable money, he finally consented to play and took ten dollars worth of checks, with these he won a small amount and said he quit he was again urged to play and was invited to take another drink, he took it, and then knew nothing more till he found himself at the street door of the saloon, his money—$112—all gone He then went back and said he had been robbed, and wanted $2 50 to pay his hotel bill, the man to whom he spoke threatened to kick him down the stairs, but finally gave him the $2 50 He went down again, and went in search of the Chief of police and accosting a draymen, and telling him what he wanted the latter took him on his dray and started down the street He went some distance and finally found the officer, or rather the officer found him as above related He says he had $112 in his pocket when he went in, and came out with not a cent The officers know the parties described and doubtless have them before now.

AN EXCELLENT EXPEDIENT.—The Olympia Daily Tribune of Jan. 26, went to press with two columns on-its second page which were utterly blank save at the head of the first one there were these words "By Telegraph—Special Dispatches to the Pacific Tribune This is where the telegraphic news ought to be, but as we didn't receive any we can't put it here"

Well, after all, the Tribune didn't do so badly and the dispatches arrived it could have furnished its readers with a few contradictory statements from the seat of war, under the authority of "It is said or 'It is believed," something about the battle ag on the Dion Deary billiard match, the death of Mr Maggie Ryan, who left three little children the fact that a Frenchman, arrested at Hi ana fo the murder of a cyprian, had pr ved an alibi and that a negro, name not mentioned had been aught upon a suspicion of being the re criminal that the Indians in some part of Arizona had stolen thirty three mules, etc, etc This and nothing more The Tribune may console itself at any time under suspension of the dispatches, with Mr Toot's saying "It's of no consequence" The blank columns will serve the double purpose of sparing the publisher's purse and the reader's patience.

A WOMAN ABANDONED TO DIE.—Mr Lappens, Chief of Police, showed us one of the most disgusting y horrible and pitiful sights we remember ever to have looked upon It was a China woman, stand ng in the filthy den of an outhouse i [illegible] was scarcely more, was in a state of attenuation at the rear of one of the Chinese rookeries fr ng on Second street, between Alder an Ma n In this, on a sort of bunk a w mass of the most ghastly appearance, stick ng a the very bones She was [illegible] ed in many rags which gave forth a hor [illegible] each The woman talks Englis well enough to make herself understood. She say she has been in this horrible state for fifteen m nths and only the merest pittance of d ller addi on shows that she is upon the very verge of death from starvation She rapidly sinks, the limbs wasted till they be [illegible] and skin remain. She is just able to walk seven rods and her moans upon being left a one ag were pitiful in the extreme. Mr Lappens says that he will to-day tear down the hovel and remove the occupant. The county authorities will be asked to afford her relief, and meantime efforts will be made to discover who is responsible for her entombment in this manner

WELLAMET FREIGHT.—Notwithstanding the fact that the railroad has brought down from the [illegible] a considerable part of several ship loads of [illegible] the business of the P T Company have [illegible] do as large a business as during the month of January past otherwise The amount brought down to Oregon City was only [illegible] 5000 tons a larger amount than was brought down the river in any one previous month The largest [illegible]ath's freight previous to January was that of April, 1869, when the amount was 4 670 tons. And yet, large as the last month's work, it would have been much [illegible] if storeroom could have been found for [illegible], or had there been vessels here to convey

LIFE ON THE STREETS.—The streak of sunshine which slipped down the ethereal azure upon Wednesday yesterday, warmed into life and brought out upon the streets nearly the entire biped population of Portland The ladies, except a few who had "nothing to wear," were all out, and the baby wagons were beyond counting Gracious what a home population we have coming on to be sure The idlers, too! Forty cents would not have gone through ten per cent of them Business men watched their stores and offices from their sunny doors and it was remarkable how many of them had errands down town, even a few blocks, and how long it took them to go back

THE WEATHER AND A PREDICTION.—Yesterday was not only the 1st of February, but it was also the beginning, apparently, of the regular "February term" of weather which all the old settlers were accustomed to expect at some time during the latter part of winter. Not long since we had had luck with a weather prediction, but not withstanding that we are going to venture another, viz: If it don't rain for a month, and if the sun shall shine by day and the moon and stars by night, for the next term, we shall have a month of pleasant weather—fit to be called a February term" It otherwise, why then,

GERMAN REJOICING AT OREGON CITY.—A gentleman down from Oregon City, informs us that the Germans had a grand celebration there on Wednesday evening They had a procession through the streets, bearing the American and German flags on the same staff, firing guns, illuminations of houses, speeches, etc. There was such a general rejoicing as was strongly reminding of the days when the Union people used to jubilate over the news of Union victories during our civil war Many of the American born citizens joined in the flags and manifested their sympathies with the German cause

REDUCTION OF EXPRESS CHARGES.—Wells, Fargo & Co., have materially reduced their rates for carrying packages from Portland to various points in Eastern Oregon and Idaho For in stance packages of 50 pounds and upwards, to La Grande, the reduction is from 22 to 15c per pound, to Boise City, from 29 to 22c per pound to Idaho City, from 37 to 25c per pound, and to other points in proportion, the reduction being from 25 to 33 per cent. This is a very material change in favor of customers.

PASSENGERS FOR THE NORTH.—The N. P. T. Co's propeller California, sailed at 4 P M yesterday for Victoria and Puget Sound with the following named passengers Miss Lillie Bunker Capt H M Gregory, Sister Blandina Sister Mary, J H Mitchell, L Atkinson and H Boris, in cabin, and C Tuttle and J Allison, in steerage

THE CORRECT TIME.—Messrs L C Henrichsen & Co. found by an observation of the sun yesterday that their time was three and one half minutes slow, and they therefore set the city clock that much forward This will account for the variations between the clock and watches which were observed last evening

COMING TO PORTLAND TO SCHOOL.—We see in the Olympia Transcript a list of five young ladies who left that town for Portland, to attend St Helen's Hall School, and that paper says others are to follow The high schools of this city are obtaining a just popularity throughout the northwestern Pacific coast country.

FURNITURE TO VICTORIA.—The foreign shipment of freight per steamer California yesterday, was valued in value to $3,555 60, consigned to Victoria.

FEVER AND AGUE.—Why shake? PLANTATION BITTERS will positively cure any form of intermittent fever Travel through any region where the malady prevails and all who have tried the preparation will tell you so. Thousands of families in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys and on the borders of the Southern rivers and swamps regard it as a specific for the complaint Nothing could induce them to be without it; and they begin to take it regularly at the commencement of the Spring and at the close of Summer as a safeguard against malaria They know their wisdom thereby The shivering plague passes their door without intruding to smite their neighbors who have shown less forecast Every year, however, the number of these improvident victims decreases There is no teacher like experience; and when a shaking and burning sufferer sees his friend on the next farm or plantation in perfect health, though breathing the same atmospheric poison as himself, and learns that this exception to the complaint is due to PLANTATION BITTERS

The Grand Chicago Hotel

From the Chicago Tribune

Mr Potter Palmer returned from Europe on Thursday after an absence of nearly six months He left here immediately after his marriage to spend the honeymoon, and has been in every country on the continent except Turkey and Russia He combined business with pleasure, and while traveling around was busy preparing plans for the grand hotel which he is about to build on State street near Monroe He visited all the principal cities, studying the architecture of famous structures borrowing a bit of beauty from many of them and bringing it all back to plan it in Chicago in a building that when finished, will be the most magnificent hotel in the world

Beginning at the corner of Monroe, the front on State street will measure 256 feet The rear of the centre part of the building will reach back to Wabash avenue, a distance of 340 feet, and have a frontage of about 80 feet The corners at Wabash avenue will not be occupied by the hotel The depth on Monroe street will be 253 feet

The grand front will be on State street, and, judging from the elevation made by the architect, it will be the most imposing front that has ever been erected. The lower floors will be on what is known as the entresol plan that is, there will be a street floor with an entrance from the sidewalk, and an upper floor just above it that can be entered in the same way, or through the street floor On the floors will be stores the lower ones 11½ feet high, and the entresol 10 feet high 11 on State street, 3 on Monroe, and 4 on Wabash avenue, making a total of 18 stories on each floor, or 39 stories in all. Those fronting on State street will be 56 feet deep, and the others 100 feet deep, the width varying They will be elegantly fitted up.

The third story, or the parlor floor, will be the second high, the fourth, twelve feet high, also the sixth, seventh and eighth, nine, the hotel height from the ground to the caves, counting the roofing over one hundred feet The building, space measuring [illegible] constructed in the most [illegible] manner The plan was [illegible] Paris, a building [illegible] Napoleon and to which the [illegible] France added something, [illegible] improved by the late Emperor [illegible] the Louvre will have [illegible] This matter pace will [illegible] and at the point ends [illegible] roof decorated with beautiful [illegible] from the street to the top [illegible] pairs standing out from [illegible] The only image of the kind [illegible] country is the [illegible] Park [illegible] The hotel front the bank [illegible] It will not be so high, [illegible] ornamentation be so elaborate [illegible] but will [illegible] resting on miniature [illegible] will be between the double row of [illegible] The remainder [illegible] State street [illegible] will be [illegible] about the building a [illegible] and at each floor the building a [illegible] towers [illegible] chitectural beauties of [illegible] Monroe street will [illegible] The Monroe street [illegible] Theatre in Paris The Monroe street [illegible] the Grand Hotel, [illegible] Paris, [illegible] and cafes and [illegible] and fitted [illegible] [illegible] will be [illegible] ing with magnificent [illegible] the other rooms

There will be three dining rooms, each 75 [illegible] and [illegible] each other. To give them the necessary height they will be between the first and fifth floors, the fourth [illegible] being omitted in this part of the building The height [illegible] the ceiling will be [illegible] feet The [illegible] which there will be [illegible] 30 feet [illegible] will front on State [illegible] The [illegible] the dining [illegible] will be arranged [illegible] that all can be [illegible] at once The [illegible] will contain 500 rooms for guests

Disraeli's enemies declare he is a Mohammedan in the disguise of an Israelite, and that he is a Pagan also, which shows at least, that he is capable of sustaining a complicated theology

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and started before it is too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest this city publishing their skill in curing all diseases In a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those who have not the skill to cure you
